

Thanks to very generous grants from

Vista Higher Learning

and from

The NYS Statewide Language Regional Bilingual Education
Resource Network (RBE-RN) at NYU,

NECTFL is pleased to announce

20 scholarships
for
new teachers
(1-5 years experience)

AND

20 partial scholarships
for experienced
“mentor” teachers
(7+ years of experience)

to attend the

2021 Northeast Conference on the Teaching of Foreign Languages

April 22–24, 2021 in New York City

- Applicants must live and teach in the Northeast region and be a current member of their state professional association. (NYS teachers only will be eligible for the ten RBE-RN-funded scholarships.)
- New teacher scholarships cover conference registration for a three-hour pre-conference workshop on Thursday, as well as Friday and Saturday attendance. Travel, meals, and hotel expenses are not included.
- Mentor teacher stipends are $50, which may be used toward registration fees.
- New teacher applicants must be currently employed in the Northeast region and have 1–5 years of teaching experience.
- Mentor teacher applicants must have seven or more years of experience and have attended at least one Northeast Conference in the past five years.
- Applicants must agree to attend the entire conference, including a focus-group meeting (session/time tbd).
- Each scholarship winner will be paired with a mentor with the expectation that they will communicate with each other prior to the conference and will meet at different times over the course of the conference to touch base and discuss their conference experience.
- Applicants should request a signed and scanned letter of support from their immediate supervisor to provide confirmation of employment, a commitment of support, and confirmation that the applicant will be allowed release time to attend the conference. This letter will be uploaded with your application. Alternately, your administrator may email it directly to info@nectfl.org.
- The application deadline is Friday, March 12, 2021. All applications and letters of support must be received by this date. Applicants will be notified by March 26, 2021.
