

Two NEW Scholarship Opportunities

One for high school students

One for university students

NECTFL is pleased to partner with Vista Higher Learning to offer one scholarship to a high school student who is dedicated to a career in language teaching and one scholarship to a university student who is enrolled in a matriculated program toward a degree and teacher licensure.

Each scholarship is $1,000 and will be awarded to the strongest candidate whose application is evaluated on a rubric by a committee.

To apply:

Make a folder including

1. Your current high school or college transcript
2. List of school, campus and community activities
3. A one-page statement of your future plan to become a language teacher (750 words max)
4. Recommendation letter from peer
5. Recommendation letter from an instructor or academic advisor/dean/department chair
6. Hyperlink to video. In the video, you introduce yourself and describe briefly your passion for languages using a language you are studying and considering teaching. The video should focus on the candidate the entire time – max 3 minutes
